

PSALM

83 O my God, do not keep silent

Capo 3: Em Am7 B Em (D7 Em)

1 O my God, do not keep si-lent; be not qui-et,
 2 With one mind they plot a-gainst you; they are al-lies 3 Deal to them as once to Mid-ian; Ja-bin, Sis-er-be not still. See how all your foes are stir-ring, for the fight-tents of Ha-gar and of Mo-ab, a once slain at the might-y tor-rent Kish-on, ea-ger to move in and kill. For they plot a-E-dom and the Ish-mael-ite, Ge-bal, Am-a-left like ref-use in the rain. Make their chiefs like gainst your loved ones, make their cun-ning plans, and say, "Come, let us delek and Am-mon, Phil-is-tines with men of Tyre. Now As-syr-i-Zeeb and Or-eb, Ze-ba and Zal-mun-na too, when they said, "We'll

The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with chords in the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

- 4 Like the tumbleweed disperse them,
like the chaff before the breeze.
As the flames lay waste the mountains
or the fire consumes the trees,
so pursue them with your tempest;
may your storm bring fear and shame.
LORD, bring them humiliation, so that they may seek your name.
- 5 May they be ashamed forever;
let dismay be on their face.
May they be destroyed completely;
let them perish in disgrace.
LORD, make known your name among them;
show that you alone are God –
that you are the Most High, ruling over all the earth abroad.
