

21 O LORD, in your strength

1 O LORD, in your strength how the king is ex-ul-tant! How great is his 2 You wel-comed him rich-ly with bless-ings of good-ness; a crown of fine 3 Through tri-umphs you gave, his re-nown is ex-alt-ed, and you have be-joy in the tri-umphs you bring! To him you have grant-ed his gold you have placed on his head. He asked you for life, and you stowed on him splen-dour and grace. You sure-ly have grant-ed him heart's deep-est long-ing; you an-swered the plea from the lips of the king.

 gave him it free-ly – a - bun-dance of days, that his years should not end.
 bless-ings e - ter - nal; you filled him with joy by the light of your face.

4 For the king puts his trust in the LORD high a - bove;

un-shak-en he stands through the LORD's stead-fast love.

bow at the read - y, you'll make them turn back and their cour - age will fail.

7 Be ex - alt - ed, O LORD, in the strength of your arm; we praise your great might to the sound of a psalm.

The musical score is written for voice and piano in 3/4 time, key of D major. It consists of five systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). Chord symbols are placed above the vocal line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line, with line numbers 5, 6, and 7 indicating the start of new lines of text. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
