

O sovereign God

1 O sov-ereign God, our sol - ace and our strength,
 2 Where can we flee as crea - tures who have failed?
 3 Your bound - less love was show - ered from a - bove:
 4 En - cour-aged by your spir - it we may live,

in you a - lone we find true peace and power.
 You search our hearts and minds, you see our sin
 in Christ, your Son, you grant - ed us re - prieve.
 e - quipped for ev - ery task and ser - vice true.

In all the bat - tles which we face at length
 and all its con - se - quence which we be - wailed.
 We can - not grasp the depth of your great love,
 What - ev - er in your prov - i - dence you give,

you grant re - sour - ces for the dy - ing hour.
 And yet, you came to set us free with - in.
 but by your grace you help us to be - lieve.
 make it, O Lord, a means for serv - ing you!
