

PSALM

73 Surely God is good to Israel

Capo 1: D A (D) G (A G) D (Bm Em) A D

1 Sure - ly God is good to Is - rael and to those whose
 2 They are not be - set by strug - gles; they are health - y,
 3 From their cal - lous hearts comes e - vil, from their minds, great

D A<sup>7</sup> D G D C G D

hearts are pure. As for me, my steps were slip - ping, fit and strong - un - dis - turbed by such dis - eas - es wick - ed - ness. They de - ride and speak with mal - ice;

A D (Bm) A E A D A D

and my foot - hold was un - sure. For the ar - ro - as to hu - man life be - long. So they clothe them - bold, they threat - en to op - press. For their mouths lay

G (A G) D (Bm Em) A D A D

gant I en - vied as I saw them live se - cure.
 selves with vio - lence; greed and pride their necks a - dorn.
 claim to heav - en, and their tongues the earth pos - sess.

Surely God is good to Israel

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 4    So their people, turning to them,praise the wicked to the sky,saying, “How can God control us?Are we known to God Most High?”Thus the wicked grow in riches,all anxiety laid by.                   | 7    How they’re shattered in a moment,swept away by sudden fear!As a dream when one awakens,so, O Lord, when you appear,you will mock their aspirations,and their hopes will disappear.        |
| 5    Have I kept my heart for nothing,washed my hands in innocence?All day long your plagues are on me;daily are my pains intense.If I spoke thus, then your childrenwould have suffered great offence. | 8    When my spirit was embitteredand my heart with grief brought low,like a beast I was before you –dull, in understanding slow.Yet, O Lord, you hold my right hand;with you I will always go. |
| 6    When I tried to understand this,it was all too hard for metill I came into God’s temple –then I saw their destiny;for on slippery ground you place themand destroy them utterly.                   | 9    To your glory you will bring mewith your counsel as my guide.I have none but you in heaven;all on earth I lay aside.Flesh and heart may fail, but everGod my portion will abide.           |
- 10   Those far off from you will perish;
     you give them their due reward.
     As for me, it is a blessing to be near the Sovereign LORD.
     I have made my God my refuge;
     all your deeds I will record.