where they go, nor count them as my friends.

4 I wash my hands in innocence
and seek your altar, LORD,
and, singing there with thankful voice,
your mighty works record.

6 O do not sweep me down to death
with those who thirst for blood;
their right hands overflow with bribes;
they turn away from good.

5 I love your house, O mighty LORD,
I love the holy place
where you in your great glory dwell;
you visit us in grace.

7 I walk in my integrity;
redeem me, LORD, in grace.
Securely now I stand, O LORD;
in worship I bring praise.
