

HYMN

If I speak a foreign tongue

1 If I speak a for-eign tongue, if I sing the an-gel's song,
 2 If all learn-ing I ap-prove and my faith can moun-tains move,
 3 If I give a-way all gain, suf-fer mar-tyr-dom in pain,

I am still a nois-y gong if I have not love.
 all these gifts still noth-ing prove if I have not love.
 noth-ing yet do I at-tain if I have not love.

4 Love is patient, love is kind;
 love rejects an evil mind.
 Jealousy is left behind
 if I have this love.

5 Love is endless in its reign,
 though all tongues and knowledge wane.
 Faith and hope and love remain;
 greatest still is love.
