The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score is divided into two systems. The first system has six measures with chords Bm, F#m, Em7, A7, D, and G. The second system has five measures with chords F#, Bm, Em, A7, and D. The lyrics are: 'he heard his great voice tell they would be his peo - ple, and mak - ing all things new." He is A and Z, he is jewel, the cit - y shines, with its streets of gold and its'. The second system continues with: 'he their God, and a - mong them he came to dwell. first and last, and his words are ex - act and true. gates of pearl, in a glo - ry where each com - bines.'

- 4 As they measured its length and breadth I could see no temple there, for its only temple is God the Lord and the Lamb in that city fair.
And it needs neither sun nor moon in a place which knows no night, for the city's lamp is the Lamb himself, and the glory of God its light.
- 5 And I saw by the sacred throne flowing water, crystal clear, and the tree of life with its healing leaves and its fruit growing all the year.
So the worshippers of the Lamb bear his name and see his face, and they reign and serve and forever live to the praise of his glorious grace.
