

At your feet we fall

1 At your feet we fall, might-y ris - en Lord,
 2 There we see you stand, might-y ris - en Lord,
 3 Like the shin - ing sun in its noon - day strength,

as we come be - fore your throne to wor - ship you.
 clothed in gar - ments pure and ho - ly, shin - ing bright.
 we now see the glo - ry of your won - drous face.

By your Spir - it's power you now draw our hearts,
 Eyes of flash - ing fire, feet like bur - nished bronze,
 Once that face was marred, now you're glo - ri - fied,

and we hear your voice in tri - umph ring - ing clear.
 and the sound of man - y wa - ters is your voice.
 and your word, a two - edged sword, has might - y power.
