| 4 Upon my bed I lie awake
and in my thoughts remember you;
I meditate throughout the night
and keep your constant love in view. | 6 All those who seek my life will die;
down to the depths they will descend.
They will become the jackal's food;
the deadly sword will bring their end. |
| 5 Because you are my help alone,
in shadow of your wings I'll sing.
You hold me up with your right hand;
to you, O God, my soul will cling. | 7 The king will then rejoice in God, with all who swear by God's great name.
The mouths of liars will be closed,
and they will all be put to shame. |
