

75 We give you thanks, O God

1 We give you thanks, O God, be -

2 "I choose the ap - point - ed time; I

3 "Boast not!" I tell the proud; the cause your name is near. All speak of your ma - judge with jus - tice sure. When earth and all its wick - ed I ad - dress: 'Do not lift up your jes - tic deeds; your voice we al - so hear:

peo - ple quake, its pil - lars I se - cure.

heads with pride or speak with haugh - ti - ness.' "

4 No one in all the earth
can truly give renown.
God is the judge; he raises one and puts another down.

5 The LORD's hand holds a cup with wine of powerful blend;
he pours it out, and wicked ones
must drink it to the end.

6 God's works I will proclaim,
and Jacob's God I'll praise.
The wicked's strength I will destroy;
the righteous I will raise.