

PSALM

132 LORD our God, remember David

1 LORD our God, re-mem-ber Da-vid and the hard-ships which he bore.
 2 We, in Eph-ra-thah, have heard this, found it in the fields of Jaar:
 3 For the sake of your own ser-vant, Da-vid, your ap-point-ed one,

To the Might-y One of Ja-cob, to the LORD, this oath he swore:
 "Let us has-ten to his dwell-ing, wor-ship at his foot-stool there.
 do not turn a-way your fa-vour from his own a-noint-ed son.

"My house I will nev-er en-ter; rest and slum-ber I will shun, Rise, O LORD, and dwell a-mong us, rest-ing with your ark of might!
 GOD has sworn an oath to Da-vid; from it he will nev-er turn:

till I find the LORD a dwell-ing fit for Ja-cob's Might-y One."
 May your priests be clothed with hon-our, may your saints sing with de-light."
 "I will choose from your de-scend-ants one to sit up-on your throne.

LORD our God, remember David

4 “If your sons will keep my covenant
and the statutes I make known, surely then shall their descendants sit forever on your throne.”
For the LORD has chosen Zion –
there he wishes to remain:
“Here’s my resting place forever,
here it pleases me to reign.

5 “I will bless her with abundance;
for her poor much food I’ll bring.
I will grant her priests salvation,
and with joy her saints will sing.
I will raise a horn for David,
for my chosen one a light.
With disgrace his foes I’ll cover;
he’ll be crowned with glory bright.”
