O my God, do not keep silent

Text: Sing Psalms, © Psalmody Committee, Free Church of Scotland, 2003, alt. Tune: John Ambrose Lloyd, 1815–1874

O my God, do not keep silent

- 4 Like the tumbleweed disperse them, like the chaff before the breeze. As the flames lay waste the mountains or the fire consumes the trees, so pursue them with your tempest; may your storm bring fear and shame. LORD, bring them humiliation, so that they may seek your name.
- May they be ashamed forever; let dismay be on their face. May they be destroyed completely; let them perish in disgrace. LORD, make known your name among them; show that you alone are God that you are the Most High, ruling over all the earth abroad.